1.2.4 Written Summary -- In the space below, the supervisor should summarize the facts and circumstances of the incident, the employee's response, the supervisor's actions and any other pertinent information not previously noted. Include the date, times and location of reasonable suspicion testing or note if employee refused test. Attach additional sheets of paper as needed.

2. If after completing this checklist you believe the employee may be under the influence, proceed as follows:

2.1 Ask the employee to meet with you at a private location. If he or she refuses, go to step 2.8.

- 2.2 Select an authorized witness (another supervisor) to attend the meeting with you. At the employee’s request, a representative of the employee’s union, if available, may also observe the meeting.
- 2.3 BEFORE asking the employee the following questions, explain the following points to the employee:
 - 2.3.1 Any answers he or she may give to the following questions will be used to help decide whether he or she will be asked to submit to a test for the presence of drugs and/or alcohol in his or her body;
 - 2.3.2 The answers to the following questions are private data and will only be disclosed to appropriate medical and district personnel, and the answers will not be disclosed to any other person or agency without the employee’s further authorization, and
 - 2.3.3 He or she is not legally required to answer the following questions.
- 2.4 Ask the employee to read and sign the following statement:

I, _____ voluntarily consent to answer the following questions. I acknowledge that: I have been given a copy of Independent School District 196 Policy 406, Section 3, Chemical-Free Workplace; I have been informed of the purpose and intended use of the answers to the following questions; I may refuse to answer the following questions; if I refuse to answer the following questions, I may be subject to discipline for insubordination; and the answers to the following questions will be disclosed to appropriate medical and district personnel.

- 2.5 Ask the employee the following questions, and mark the answers on this form.
 - a. Do you feel ill? Yes___ No___
If yes, what are the symptoms? _____
 - b. Are you under a medical practitioner’s care? Yes ___ No ___
If yes, what is the medical practitioner’s name and address? _____

c. Can you explain the observed behavior? _____

2.6 If the explanation leads you to believe there is reasonable cause for an alcohol and/or drug test, the employee should be asked to go with an authorized district representative (a supervisor or designee) to the testing site, if in district, or other U.S. Department of Transportation-licensed laboratory or clinic if out of district.

2.7 If the employee agrees to the test:

- a. The authorized district representative (a supervisor or designee) will escort the employee to the testing site or other U.S. Department of Transportation-licensed laboratory or clinic.
- b. The employee should be taken or sent home. If he or she insists on driving, tell him or her the local police will be notified.

2.8 If the employee refuses the test or walks out before questioning, take the following actions:

- a. Inform him or her that the refusal is considered insubordination and that he or she could be subject to dismissal. Then ask the employee again to take the test (or to meet with you).
- b. If he or she again refuses, the employee should immediately be escorted from the district property, taken home or sent home.
