Upon receipt of a report or complaint of alleged harassment, discrimination, violence or hazing, the District 196 Human Rights Officer shall inform the superintendent and undertake or authorize an investigation within three school days.

- 4.1 The investigation may be conducted by school or district officials or by a third party chosen by the district. The District 196 Human Rights Officers may use their discretion to require an investigation even if the complainant asks that the matter not be investigated, and even if the complaint is also being investigated by the authorities. In some cases, the district may elect to postpone or delegate an investigation in deference to another investigation of the same conduct by the authorities.

Whether a particular action or incident constitutes a violation of district policy requires a determination based on all the facts and surrounding circumstances.
- 4.3 The investigation may consist of: personal interviews with the complainant, personal interviews with the individual(s) against whom the complaint is filed (separate from the interviews with the complainant), personal interviews with others who may have knowledge of the alleged incident(s) or circumstances which led to the complaint and any other methods and documents deemed pertinent by the investigator.

Resolutions or dispositions reached through other disciplinary or grievance procedures may be considered in resolving any complaint under this regulation.
9. Right to Alternative Complaint Procedures - This regulation does not deny the right of any individual to pursue other avenues of recourse which may include filing charges with the Minnesota Department of Human Rights or Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), filing a complaint with the (OCR), initiating civil action or seeking redress under state criminal statutes and/or federal law.
