The Newsletter of the Eastview HS Chain Gang and Booster Club--- Vol. 3, Game #4

Hello, chaingang supporter. Welcome to the official publication of the Eastview HS Chain Gang (the midwest's premier sideline squad) and CG Booster Club (the midwest's finest booster organization)

Weekly results—Team: Eastview (3-2) 34, Chaska 13. CG: 1-0. (on field once; won the call). John Raymond (sideline statistics) wimped out and spent the second half in the press box.

Weekly sideline wager: the bet WAS undecided on Friday night, as the rain and cold pushed the gang off the field immediately after the game. Hokkanen (absent right poletender, see following article) submitted a wager before leaving on his “hunting trip”. It was: Total of all the numbers on the board at the end of the game, divided by the number of inoperative stadium lights. Three lights were counted “burned out”, but no scoreboard total was counted. However, the game film has been reviewed! Time: 00:00 + home score 34 + visitor score 13 + home time outs 2 + down 1 + to go 10 + ball on 20 + quarter 1 (CONFIRMED by video tape!) + visitor time outs 3 = TOTAL 84; divided by 3 lights out = 28. Predictions: Hokkanen 12, Raymond 24, Petrich 25, Vollmer 67 (way to go Jerry) , Bailey 27, Coulthart 19. Bailey wins.

SPEAKING OF HOKKANEN....his “hunting trip” was successful; he likes to talk about it so feel free to ask him. He recruited one Mr. Brad Coulthart, a man with much chain gang experience (9 years at EHS) and a deep love for the chains. Brad filled in admirably, manning the clipper's position in the cold wet muddy conditions. Yay Brad!

This Week's game—is away at Rosemount on Friday night at 7 pm. It looks like most of the CG will be in attendance, both to connect with old friends and study the RHS Chain gang in action. For those of you who are new to the world of chain gang, it is common practice to “scout” other gangs just as the team coaches “scout” other teams. This is one way we try to get ideas and improve.

-----BOOSTER CLUB NOTES-----

Last Game—it was great to see the CG members in the stands wearing their buttons and new CGBC shirts, even in the poor weather. First class all the way! Yay Booster Club members!
