CHAINGANG...or CHANGE-GANG? LINEUP WELCOMES NEW TALENT !

In a move widely seen as a backward career step, Randy Bailey will be taking a one-year leave from his left-stick post to take over the sideline statistics position. (Apparently, head coach Kelly Sherwin was very persuasive.) Filling in during Bailey's sabbatical is an aspiring talent, Mr. Todd Hering. Todd, a long-time regular at game-day breakfasts, is a #1 draft pick and comes to camp with the highest of expectations. In accordance with CG tradition, Dennis Petrich will move to stick duty, while training the new guy to run the chain clip. Veterans returning to their familiar posts are Jerry Vollmer (inspirational leader and chain gang Chief) on Down Box duty and Charles Hokkanen (recently off probation) tending the right stick. Hokkanen and Bailey warmed up for the season by working the sidelines at the team's intrasquad scrimmage.

This Week's Preview—The Lightning open with an away game against Kennedy at Bloomington Stadium, this Thursday night at 7 pm. Both teams lost several talented starters to graduation, so look for this to be a see-saw game as the young squads try to find out where all the new faces will fit into the lineup. Go Lightning!!

Booster Spirit! –The CG Booster Club will be sponsoring pre-game festivities at Andy's Tap (Old Shakopee Road and France Avenue) at 5:30 p.m. before Thursday's game. If you have never been to a chain gang function, Andy's Tap is a great place to start (Nothing like a greasy, juicy burger before a football game!). If you need more specific directions, would like to carpool or have any questions just let a CG or Booster Club member know. It's great to have a big group, for social reasons and especially to then go support the Eastview Football team. Look for similar events before EVERY away game, and don't forget to wear your button on game day!
