Homecoming Special

Recap and Preview – It's a 2-game win streak as the Mighty Fightin' Lightnin' smushed Chaska by a 28-0 score. Coach Humbert's stingy D held the Hawks to only 129 yards of total offense, making it one of Eastview's best-ever performances. Sideline pincushion (& part-time cameraman) Gerber made it through this game WITHOUT getting pasted! The impromptu post-game celebration at the head coach's place featured the debut of young Maxwell A. Sherwin, whom scouts are projecting as a middle linebacker on Eastview's 2018 Championship team. Now it's Homecoming week and on Friday we'll welcome our friends from Rosemount. The resurgent Irish are on the comeback trail after going winless in the Lake last season. They've beaten Jefferson; last week they put up a good fight against a strong Eagan team. Look for them to play an emotional game against top rival Eastview, and for the Lightning to return the favor.

The Wager—veteran chainsman Hokkanen has been busy formulating this week's sideline wager. All boosters are welcome to participate in this weekly contest—just check with Charlie to see what dastardly scheme he's come up with.

Booster Spirit! –There were 12 fans who made the long journey to the Chaska pre-game, including the entire Vollmer clan and cycle-gangster Mike "Spike" Haugh! The Homecoming pre-game warmup this Friday is 5:20 pm sharp at Grizzly's in Apple Valley. ALL Eastview fans are welcome.

Spike Speaks.....
(special guest column from booster Mike Haugh)

When I was growing up, my two least favorite franchises were the Packers (for obvious reasons), and Notre Dame. Something about those tie-wearin', silver-spooned, young republican wannabes just made me cringe. (So I ended up at St. Thomas - the Notre Dame of the North - just to see if I could upset the apple cart. I was unsuccessful.) Anyway, just the word "Irish" gives me the willies. I'm proud of my Irish heritage and I still have relatives in County Cork; I know all the words to "Danny Boy" and can even sing them sober; I've actually tried potato ale. Killian's Red is a personal staple. To name a high school or a snooty college "Irish" just isn't right! Clovers aren't even native to Ireland! Go Lightning! Argh!
(Disclaimer: The opinions of guest columnists do not necessarily reflect those of its editors. For those of you with Rosemount or Notre Dame ties, we apologize, and for pete's sake lighten up!!)

Booster of the Week—
He's at every game caring for the injured, he's "Mr. Conversationalist", he's the original Chain Gang fashion coordinator! We salute our Booster of the Week,
Doug "Big Train" Nelson.
