Senior Night vs. Lakeville

Recap & Preview-- Whew.....what a game! It was back-and-forth for 4 quarters, with neither Rosemount nor Eastview taking any clear advantage. The teams traded touchdowns until the clock ran out with the score tied at 14. The Lightning took the ball in overtime and got the job done, scoring a TD on 3rd down and kicking the PAT for a 7 point lead. However, the advantage in OT is always with the team that goes second, and Rosemount capitalized. The Irish scored on their first play, leaving them behind 21-20. While many in the crowd expected RHS to go for the tie and attempt a near-certain extra point kick, they instead made the decision to go for a two-point conversion. It was a gutsy call, bringing the game down to a single play that would determine whether their team wins or loses! RHS' receiver caught the short pass and barely made it into the corner of the end zone for the 22-21 win, rewarding their spirited fans. The game was even more emotional than expected....some say that Rosemount simply "wanted it more". Let's hope the Lightning "want it more" for Senior Night this Friday against the visiting Lakeville Panthers! LHS is the best 1-and-5 team in the state, having played tough in each and every one of their Lake Conference battles this year. The EV/Lakeville game always seems to be a great one, and this late-season showdown will weigh heavily in determining section seedings and a potential home playoff date for EVHS. See you there. GO EASTVIEW LIGHTNING!

Booster Spirit! – Booster fever is running wild, as over 15 fans showed up at Grizzly's for the pre-game last week. Team Vollmer made it two in a row! This week we'll meet at Old Chicago in Apple Valley at 5:15, where they have some bigger tables in back to accommodate our growing crew. ALL welcome!

---Sideline Profile---
Mr. Todd Hering

The Chain Gang's new guy this year, Todd "Fish" Hering, was born in rural Stillwater. Todd quickly realized his ticket out of this backwoods existence was sports, so he dedicated himself to a Marine-style training schedule. It all paid off in a 5th grade kickball state championship. The naive Hering quickly signed with an unscrupulous agent, costing him all middle and high school eligibility. The resulting court battles piqued his argumentative interest, and he switched to a career in debate. Again, a state championship made up for other academic "issues". The Chain Gang couldn't resist his raw talent, and the rest is history.

Booster of the Week— She's the Founder & President of the Chain Gang Booster Club, she originated the "Booster Button", and she's as sweet as they come. (And we're not just saying that because she "knows" the editor) First and Ten salutes their #1 supporter: Ann Bailey!
