Game Preview

Eastview vs. Rosemount

Tonight the Eastview Boys' Basketball Team (10-4, 6-3) play host to the Irish (8-6, 4-5) from Rosemount High School. Last season these two teams split the season series, with each winning on their home floor. Rosemount boasts one of the highest scoring tandems in the league. Seniors Andrew Brommer and Mark Weiloch lead an explosive group of offensive talent for the Irish. The 6'9" Brommer is averaging close to 18ppg and is committed to the University of Iowa to continue his career. Weiloch, on the other hand, is a 6'1" sharp-shooting guard. He averages close to 16ppg and is a key cog in the Irish arsenal. 6'8 Tim Sauer completes the biggest front line in the league, and 6'2" Troy Hoepfner provides additional scoring and slashing from the perimeter. It will take a very strong defensive game from the Lightning tonight in order to gain a much needed conference and section win. Defensively, the Irish will mix up their zone defenses in hopes of keeping the offense confused and off balance throughout the night. Once again, the Eastview defense will need to generate offense if it hopes to control the tempo and the game tonight. It should be a fun one between rivals.

Player Spotlight

#10 Pat Coyne 6'1", Sr. Forward

Pat Coyne is in his second season as a member of the Eastview Varsity Boys' Basketball Team. Last season, as a Junior, Pat was the leader of the Junior Varsity team. He is known as a very strong and tough defender, particularly in the full court. His instincts, speed, and quickness allow him to grab steals in the open court with regularity. This season, Pat is in a reserve role. One which he has fulfilled with great honor and enthusiasm. Pat is a very gifted athlete. He is one of very few athletes who has the privilege and ability to be a varsity performer in three sports. This fall, he was a standout defensive back on the football team that went to state. In the spring, Pat can be seen chasing down fly balls or stealing bases with his speed and tenacity.

The Varsity basketball team is fortunate to have a strong competitor like Pat on the team. He is one who brings a passion and intensity each day and understands the value of teammates making each other better. Pat's parents are Tom & Laurie. He also has a twin sister, Ashley, who is a senior as well. Please give Pat a strong Lightning ovation as he takes the floor tonight in order to help his team grab a big Lake Conference and section victory. Good Luck Pat!!
